Community Engagement

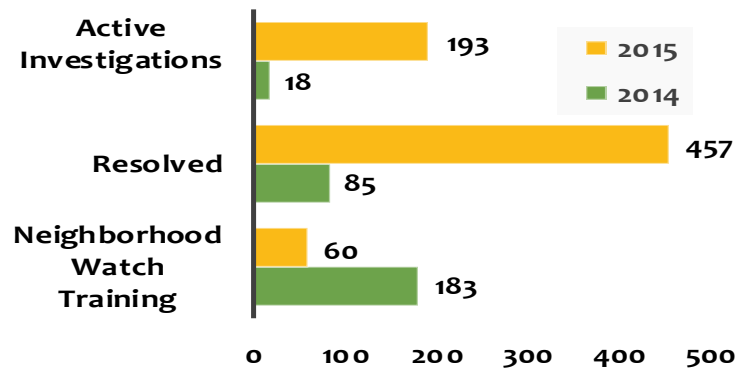

The Vallejo Police Department has been heavily involved in various community engagement activities throughout the city over the last few months. Our involvement in such activities gives members of the department an opportunity to build strong community partnerships which also aids the department tremendously in assessing community needs. We would like to thank the many organizations that have reached out to our department and allowed us the opportunity to be a part of their events. Below you will find a condensed listing of a few of these activities which we would like to highlight.

- New Dawn Vallejo Corporation —Late Night Basketball Program —IBall
 - FMBC Summer of Success
 - Google Campus Tour —FMBC
 - Global Center for Success
